

Denver Smith hails from the parish of Clarendon, Jamaica. He attended Clarendon College and completed the final year of his Associate Degree in the Sixth form program. He will be pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mass Communication at Northern Caribbean University with a goal of becoming a Communication Specialist / News Anchor or Marketing Director.

At Clarendon College, his involvement in clubs and societies included Student Council, Prefect, Sign Language Club, Debate Club, School Choir, Peer Educators, and 4-H Club. He has served as the National President of the National Secondary Students Council Jamaica (NSSCJa), Deputy Youth Mayor of May Pen Clarendon, Public Relations Officer for the Clarendon Adventist Youth Federation and held other leadership positions within his school and the wider community.

Denver describes himself as an ambitious, talented and a blessed by God person. He believes that greatness is achievable and pledges to achieve his greatness by contributing to Jamaica's development.

He extends sincere thanks and appreciation to the Atlanta Jamaican Association for this scholarship